

C's the World
The world in Your palms

Welcome to our world of knock knock jokes

Knock knock

Who's there?

Kenya who?

Kenya guess my capital?

For the answer, zoom in to the top of the Kenyatta
International Convention Centre  (one of Kenya's iconic towers)

Bonus panel

Kenya is home to Maasai Mara, a large game reserve that hosts the biggest wildebeest migration on Earth. The Great Rift Valley that slices Kenya from north to south is approx. 6500 km long and 60 km wide.

Super bonus panel

Knock knock Who's there?

Masai

Masai who?

Masai say it? it's kinda wild, I'll stop.

Knock knock

Who's there?

oman

oman who?

oman, do you know
my capital?

I would've told you but I

Muscat

going now. Yalla bye!

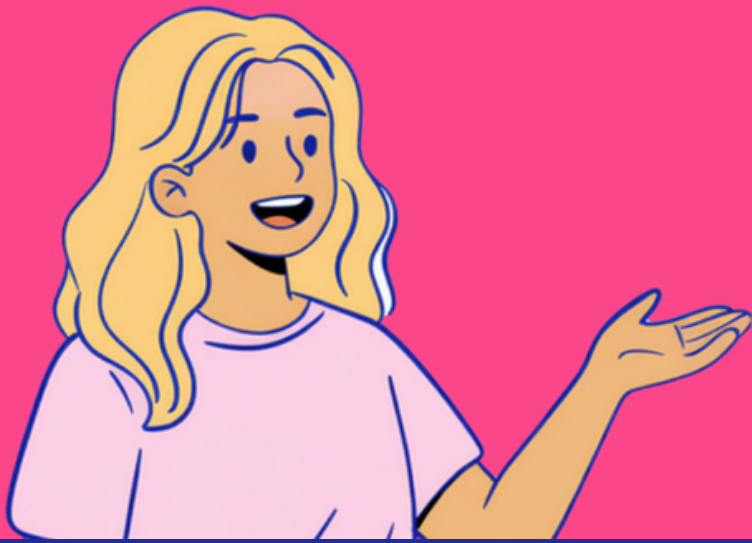

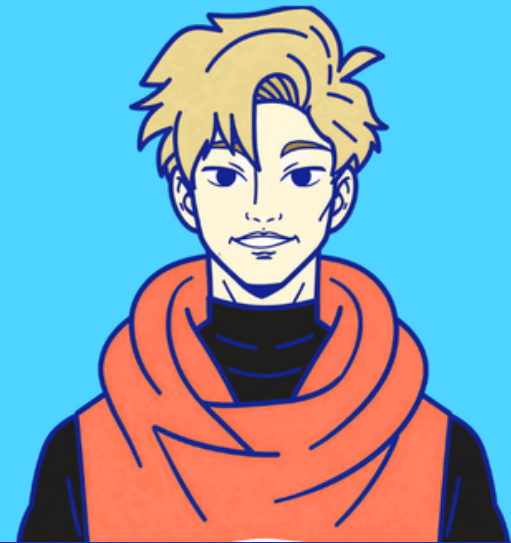

Bonus panel

Oman is the oldest independent state in the Arab world | Oman is the only country in the world starting with the letter “O” | Oman produces the world's best frankincense

Knock knock

Who's there?

Norway who?

Norway you can guess my capital

It's oslo called as the tiger city

Bonus panel

Unlike the other Nobel Prizes awarded in Stockholm, Sweden, the Nobel Peace Prize is awarded in Oslo, Norway.

Knock knock

Who's there?

Bolivia

Bolivia who?

Bolivia or not, we have two capitals

Sucre
& La Paz

As sweet and peaceful as that sounds: In Bolivia, they celebrate a Day of the Skulls, to decorate human skulls in belief that the spirits will bring protection and good luck.

Bonus panel

Uyuni Salt Flats is the world's largest mirror. During the rainy season, a shallow layer of water covers the flats, creating an infinite, surreal reflection of the sky.

Knock knock

Who's there?

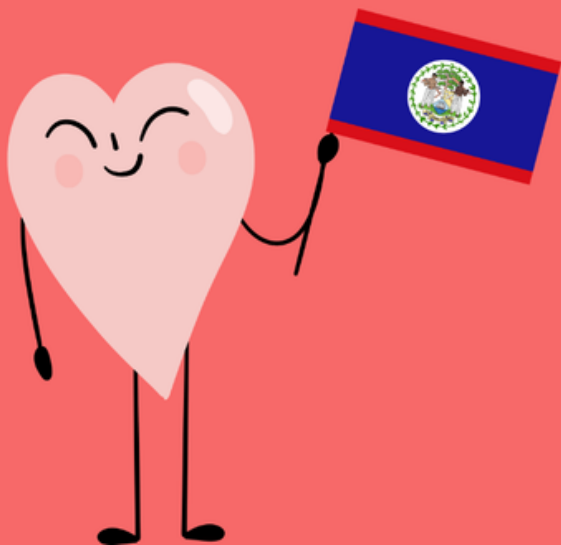

Belize

Belize who?

Belize tell me you know my capital

Belmopan

Bonus panel

The Great Blue Hole, just off the coast of Belize, is an almost perfect circle that measures around 300 m. It was formed over 10,000 years ago during the last Ice Age.

C's the World

The world in Your palms

Thank you!

Hope you enjoyed the knock knock series.

